

Teams

One in every five players at Brooklyn Northern United is female. In 2010, the club had over 50 female players across three teams. BNU aims to increase the number of women's teams it fields in 2011.

The club's first and reserve teams are known as the BNU Platoon. In 2011, the Platoon will play in the Women's Central League (Black Squad) and Women's Division 1 (Red Squad). BNU's third women's team, the Pretenders, will play in Women's Division 4.

Coaching

The coaching team are well qualified and has over 30 years combined experience coaching at Federation and club level.

Head Coach: Sandy Aitchison (NZ Football National Academy Coaching License Level 3). The women's coaching team includes Scott Reece (Level 3), John Lange (Level 1), Tania Penafield, Richard Harbour, and Daniel McCarthy.

Recent Honors

- 2010 Women's Premier League (Black Squad)
- 2010 Women's Division 2 (Red Squad)
- 2010 Runner up Kelly Cup (Black Squad)
- 2010 Wellington Master's Tournament (Club Team)
- 2009 Wellington Master's Tournament (Club Team)

Club

BNU is committed to women's football. It provides the same services for its men's and women's teams and has had a female Chairperson for last four years.

The club is part of the Women's Regional Working Group for Capital Football. A BNU-initiated review in 2009 created a local women's competition that was tailored to the needs of female players and encouraged development of the women's game.
